

FEES

The fees for each age group are determined each year by the BDNC committee and are published on the website. Fees are payable at the time of registration.

1. Fee composition

Netball Victoria Registration Fee (often referred to as VNA)

Required to be paid ONCE per calendar year, at time of BDNC registration. The membership benefits you receive are:

- Membership card emailed direct to each member
- Range of discounts and benefits as detailed by Netball Victoria each year
- Personal accident and public liability insurance
- Professional indemnity insurance for coaches and umpires
- Access to Netball Victoria's e-newsletters
- National affiliation (Netball Australia)

Club Membership Fee

Required to be paid ONCE per player, per calendar year, at time of registration. This fee contributes towards team entry fees, administration, utility bills, training equipment, match day equipment, first aid supplies, awards and the presentation night.

Court fees

Required for paying MPNA for participation in the weekly matches. Court and are paid in a lump sum prior to season commencement.

There is a sibling discount of 50% on the third and subsequent children.

NetSetGo

The NetSetGo fee also includes the Woolworths NetSetGo pack.

2. Fee Assistance/payment plans

The BDNC is committed to ensuring that all community members are supported. If any members are experiencing financial difficulties, they're encouraged to contact the President or Treasurer to arrange a payment plan.

3. Outstanding fees

In fairness to all members, BDNC will not allow members with outstanding fees to register for a new season until the outstanding amount is paid to the club in full.

4. Refunds

There are generally no refunds provided should a player cease playing netball once the season has commenced. The BDNC Committee will consider all applications of fee reimbursement.
